

In the specification:

In response to the many objections to the specification, the applicant has caused to be prepared and filed a substitute specification incorporating all of the corrections mandated by the examiner. No new matter has been added. A marked-up version of the as-filed specification is provided as well, to show exactly the changes made.